Welcome to the 112th Annual Meeting

The Texas State Historical Association returns to Corpus Christi for the 2008 Annual Meeting at the Omni Bayfront Tower Hotel. For the first time, TSAH will partner with the Hispanic Heritage of Texas Project for the four day event. HHTP and the Program Committee have done an excellent job of organizing this year’s program, resulting in more than sixty sessions covering a broad range of topics in Texas history, and offering a selection appealing to both academic historians and lay enthusiasts. Examine the session topics to discover numerous opportunities to learn more about what has happened over the centuries to make Texas what it is today.

Begin the special events on Wednesday evening with a book reading and reception hosted by the HHTP. Thursday lunch offers a rare glimpse into the world of the college president as George C. Wright, president of Prairie View A&M, addresses the subject of “Historically Black Colleges.” Thursday evening presents an unusual treat—a sunset cruise of beautiful Corpus Christi Bay. Following the cruise, head back to the Omni Bayfront Tower ballroom overlooking the bay for the TSHA Awards Banquet. Plan to attend to help us celebrate the accomplishments of Texas history researchers and authors.

Bruce Shackleford, who has appeared on “Antiques Roadshow” on PBS for ten seasons, will speak at the Book Lovers’ & Texana Collectors’ Breakfast on Friday morning. An avid historian, author, and museum advisor, Mr. Shackleford will share his considerable knowledge of Texas treasures in his presentation “Collecting Ahead of the Trend,” filled with tips for anticipating “hot” items and collecting perennial favorites.

On Friday at noon, the Liz Carpenter Award will be presented for the best scholarly book on the history of women and Texas published during the past year. Following the award presentation, Janice Woods Windle, author of True Women, Hill Country: A Novel, and Will’s War: A Novel will be our guest speaker at the Women and Texas History Luncheon.

Those attending the President’s Reception on Friday evening will travel to the Corpus Christi Museum of Science and History for an evening of soft music and great food among the exhibits as we honor our incoming president, Frances B. Vick. Following the reception, I will address you one last time as president at the Presidential Banquet.

Wind up the last day of the meeting on Saturday at the Breakfast featuring students in the TSHA-sponsored program, Texas History Day. They will present an award-winning performance on Conflict and Compromise in History—the 2008 Texas History Day theme.

I thank the Hispanic Heritage of Texas Project and the members of the 2008 Annual Meeting Program Committee for compiling a wide-ranging and diverse collection of sessions. Chaired by Light T. Cummins, the Program Committee consisted of Jean Stuntz, Bruce Winders, Richard MacCaslin, T. Lindsay Baker, Cary Wintz, Adán Benavides, Richard Stryker, Rebecca Sharpless, and Yvonne D. Frear. They worked tirelessly throughout the year to create a great program, as did TSAH staffers Janice Pinney, Terri Killen, and Sandra Gilstrap, without whose hard work the meeting would not be possible.

Enjoy celebrating Texas History Month with your friends at the Texas State Historical Association’s 2008 Annual Meeting.

Harlan Davidson

Harlan Davidson is proud to announce the publication of

The History of Texas
Fourth Edition
Robert A. Calvert

Arnoldo De León,
C. J. “Red” Davidson Professor of History, Angelo State University
Gregg Cantrell,
Erma and Ralph Lowe
Chair in Texas History,
Texas Christian University

The principle that all people make history continues to drive the fourth edition of our well-loved text, one that considers carefully the different cultures within the state as well as the unique heritage shared by all Texans. Unlike other surveys of the Lone Star State, The History of Texas goes beyond accounts of well-known figures to consider the lives of ordinary Texans, as seen in the continued and expanded coverage of topics such as agriculture, industrialization, urbanization, economic disparity, migration patterns, and demographic change. Like its predecessors, the fourth edition features folklore, music, literature, sports, religion, and other important aspects of Texas culture that help determine the flavor of Texas, past and present. Vividly illustrated and accessible to college students of all levels, The History of Texas remains the most inclusive, relevant, and up-to-date account of all those who call the Lone Star State home.

• A complimentary Instructor’s Test Bank for the Fourth Edition of The History of Texas is available on CD-ROM for Macs and PCs.

Please visit our display to see this and our other titles in Texas, U.S., and World history!

Twentieth-Century Texas
A Social and Cultural History
EDITED BY JOHN W. STOREY AND MARY L. KELLEY
An anthology of fifteen essays examining social and cultural developments in twentieth-century Texas. Available in hardcover at $39.95 and paperback at $18.95.

Captain J. A. Brooks, Texas Ranger
PAUL N. SPELLMAN
James Abijah Brooks (1855-1944) was one of the four Great Captains in Texas Ranger history. A quick-draw Texas Ranger captain who later turned in his six-shooter to serve as a county judge, Brooks’s life reflects the raucous era of the late nineteenth and early twentieth-century American West. Available in hardcover at 34.95.

A HARD-HITTING EXPOSÉ of the momentous events of World War II as they affected the freedom-loving Poles who became a pawn in the international politics of the United States, Great Britain, and Russia.

President Franklin Roosevelt carried on a personal and naïve policy of appeasing Russia, and his military leaders focused on winning the war but losing the peace.

Roosevelt failed to appease Josef Stalin just as Neville Chamberlain failed to appease Adolf Hitler. Roosevelt’s disastrous foreign policy cast Poland into Communist captivity. Victory for the Allies turned out to be defeat for Poland; and, at the Victory Parade in London, Polish Forces were denied participation, 8 June 1946.
